

When the internet was on its way up nobody knew how it was going to be. I think the internet gives us the right to Freedom Speech a right to knowlege. If the fcc tinkers around with these rules then we have a promblem on are hands. Because the internet could end up like Direct-Tv with telephony service. I like the internet the way it is. And my speech and Freedom.